CHI MU MU GIVES BACK TO THE COMMUNITY

On November 18, 2023, the brothers of Chi Mu Mu demonstrated their commitment to community service by donating over 20 bags of food to the Royal Air Force Lakenheath Food Bank. This crucial initiative supports more than 5,000 military families facing challenging circumstances.

In a hands-on approach, the brothers actively participated in unpacking and stocking the shelves alongside the Program Coordinator. The decision to contribute was spurred by the awareness that, in October alone, approximately 47 families relied on the food bank, depleting its supplies. Responding promptly to the call for assistance, the brothers mobilized to address the needs of the local military community. Basileus Brother Rob Taylor emphasized the importance of giving back when in a position to support others in need.

UK BROTHERS LIVES BY PSALM 133

On January 18, 2024, the brothers gathered for a fellowship at RAF Lakenheath, led by Brother Webb, who initiated the effort to rekindle camaraderie after the holiday season. The evening unfolded with shared meals and culminated in a hop practice session, fostering bonds of friendship and unity among the group. As the night concluded, the sentiment resonated: “To have a friend is to have one of the sweetest and dearest gifts that life can bring.”

BOWLING WITH THE UK QUES

On November 16th, the British Ques convened for their monthly fellowship, coinciding with Achievement Week. To mark the occasion, the brothers organized their annual “Bowling with the Ques” event, inviting family and friends to join in the festivities.

This event is part of the chapter’s yearly calendar of community outreach activities, reflecting their commitment to giving back. Basileus Berhan Kaleb emphasized the importance of establishing a more robust presence within the Tri-base military community, signaling a renewed focus on engagement and service.

The Brothers Of PGG Chapter Support the Saint Christophorus Homeless Shelter in Kaiserslautern

Homeless shelter donation pgg 13 January 2024

PGG has formed a consistent relationship with St Christophorus providing winter clothing in the fall and summer clothing in the spring. PGG’s clothing drives for the shelter have been so successful that the shelter’s coffers of clothing are bursting at the seams, and the shelter asked the Brothers for more specific items to provide to its patrons.

Since its chartering in 2018, the Brothers of PGG have led clothing drives in the Kaiserslautern Military Community each spring and fall to provide items to needy individuals.

The chapter Basileus, Brother Andre Pippen, pushes the chapter to find those less fortunate in the local community to support, including patrons of the local victims of domestic violence shelter. PGG’s upcoming support to the homeless shelter will focus on socks and undergarments for those in need.

On 25 March 2023, the Brothers of Phi Gamma Gamma Chapter in Kaiserslautern, Germany, collected and donated over $500 in hygiene products to the local homeless shelter, St Christophorus.

Cody Bill Harden, initiated 2012 Lambda Tau, current chapter Lambda Tau

From his roots in Kingsland, Georgia, to his current residence in Xiamen, China, Cody has traversed continents and cultures with a passion for community building and education. For the past half-decade, he's called China home, initially making his mark as a teacher in Beijing back in 2019. However, it was in 2020 that Cody planted his entrepreneurial seeds in Xiamen, establishing CodiaQ Consulting and later venturing into the convenience store business with Bear Mart.

Both CodiaQ Consulting and Bear Mart aren't just businesses; they're integral parts of the community. Cody and his team actively engage in outreach programs, from providing toys and supplies to mentoring interns. These internships aren't just about work; they're about equipping young minds with skills vital for their future.

The success stories of former interns gaining acceptance into universities both in China and Canada speak volumes about the impact of these initiatives.

This commitment to education is something he readily shares with his interns and anyone who drops by Bear Mart for a chat.

As an alumnus of Alabama State University (ASU), a Historically Black College and University (HBCU), Cody proudly showcases his alma mater along with Tuskegee, inspiring curiosity about American colleges among students.

Moreover, Cody's commitment to community welfare extends to festive seasons, with his tradition of distributing free toys and glow-in-the-dark bracelets during Christmas.

His vision for Bear Mart transcends borders, with plans to expand to 20,000 stores across China and beyond.

Yet, amidst these grand ambitions, Cody remains grounded in his mission: to be more than just a store but a cherished cornerstone of every community, where people feel at home and safe, whether they're getting their slurp on with a slurpee or simply hanging out.
